Attention: Mr. Kavanagh, Chief Deputy

Re: Pryor v. Municipal Court, Supreme Court No. LA 30901
Opinion filed September 7, 1979

Dear Mr. Kavanagh:

Pursuant to our conversation today, I am submitting a request for the following:

- 1) Appointment to represent Mr. Pryor, nunc pro tunc; and
- 2) Payment of attorneys fee and reimbursement for costs.

On August 13, 1976, I was appointed to represent Mr. Pryor by the Appellate Department of the Los Angeles Superior Court because Mr. Pryor was indigent and was in need of an attorney to handle his appeal from an adverse ruling by the Municipal Court on the constitutionality of Section 647(a) P.C. (See order attached hereto.)

On December 20, 1977 the Appellate Department upheld the judgment of the Municipal Court under compulsion of several Court of Appeal decisions, e.g., Silva v. Municipal Court (1974) 40 C.A.3d 733, People v. Williams (1976) 59 C.A.3d 225, etc. (See copy of that order which is attached hereto.)

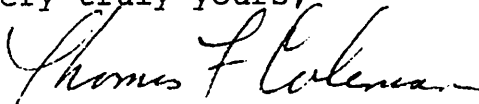

In furtherance of my representation of Mr. Pryor, I sought further review of the Municipal and Superior Court decisions by the only vehicle that seemed appropriate, i.e., Petition for a Writ of Prohibition. In that Petition I requested the Supreme Court to appoint me to represent Mr. Pryor. (See final paragraph of Petition.) On February 16, 1978 the Court issued an alternative writ. Unfortunately, it appears that the Court overlooked my request for appointment. I therefore request the Court to appoint me pursuant to my initial request and to award me attorneys fees and costs. I am attaching hereto an itemization of time and costs spent on the Petition and subsequent proceedings in the Supreme Court and would appreciate your bringing my request to the attention of the Court.

letter to
J.L. Kavanagh

The time I spent on behalf of Mr. Pryor in the Supreme Court proceedings, which includes research, writing, conferences, oral argument and preparation therefor -- as well as work done with respect to the Petition for Modification, was 64 hours. The costs incurred, including photocopying, postage, long distance calls, and typing services, were $225.00.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at Los Angeles, CA this April 4, 1980.

Very truly yours,

Re: People v. Pryor - CR A 14551 and
Pryor v. Municipal Court, Supreme Court No. LA 30901

Dear Mr. Coleman:

I have for reply your letter requesting advice as to how to proceed to procure fees for your services in Pryor v. Municipal Court. I am not sure how to respond. I gather that some six or eight weeks after the matter became final in this court you filed your successful petition in the Supreme Court. Our authority to appoint and compensate attorneys is based on Penal Code section 987.2 which provides for compensation to counsel "assigned in the superior court . . . to represent . . . a person in a criminal trial, proceeding or appeal". Your assignment was apparently at an end in this court when, on January 17, 1978, a minute order was entered authorizing the payment of $2,500.00 to you.

My initial reaction would be that your application for fees should be addressed, at least in the first instance to the Supreme Court. I note that its opinion made an award of costs to your client.

At the same time there may be an argument that your duty to your client required you to undertake the independent writ proceedings and that since it stemmed from our initial appointment of you, the County of Los Angeles should be responsible for payment.

Accordingly, I believe you should file a formal motion in whatever court you deem proper in order to secure the payment of fees since it is the County of Los Angeles which would be responsible if this court determined to order fees to you. Any motion filed in this court should be served on the county. For the same reason I am sending a copy of this letter together with a copy of your letter to me to the County Counsel.

Re: People v. Pryor, CR A 14551 and
Pryor v. Municipal Court, Supreme Court No. L.A. 30901

Dear Presiding Judge and Associate Judges:

On August 13, 1976 this Court appointed me to represent Mr. Pryor in his appeal to this Court from an adverse ruling in the Municipal Court on the constitutionality of Section 647(a). See Order Appointing Counsel, attached.

On December 20, 1977 this Court upheld the judgment of the lower court under the compulsion of Silva, Williams, Mesa, and Deyhle. See copy of judgment, attached.

In furtherance of my representation of Mr. Pryor, I did not accept your decision, but instead, sought relief in the Supreme Court of California. Not having an appeal to that Court as a remedy, I filed a Petition for a Writ of Prohibition in February, 1978 (as soon as I could prepare the paperwork after your decision) and on February 16, 1978 the Supreme Court issued an alternative writ.

The opinion of the Supreme Court in the Pryor case was filed on September 7, 1979 (a copy is enclosed for your information). The Court disapproves of all of the cases you felt compelled to follow.

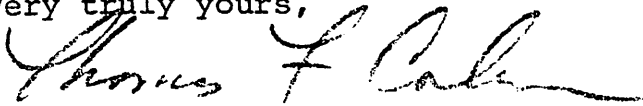

In December, 1977 I filed a request for payment of attorney fees for work done to that date. I would now like to request payment for the additional legal services I rendered on behalf of Mr. Pryor in furtherance of protecting his rights. How should I proceed with this request? Should I just submit a letter to this Court detailing the additional work I did? I estimate that the additional work would probably not exceed 40 hours.

letter to
Appellate Department

I know that several cases involving 647(a) are now pending before this Court. I suppose it would be wise to postpone consideration of those appeals until we see whether the Supreme Court decides the issue of sex registration.

Please let me know how to proceed on my request for payment of additional fees in this case.

Very truly yours,
